Icicle Arts presents the second annual Icicle Arts Festival, September 10-12, 2010. Featuring the Icicle Prize in Songwriting - finalists and student winners have been announced! Internationally-acclaimed Seattle-based flamenco guitarist Andre Feriante performs at Icicle Creek Music Center's Canyon Wren Hall Friday, September 10, 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $12 in advance and $15 at the door, online or by calling (509) 548-2278. With over 20 years of performing and recording, award-winning, virtuoso guitarist Andre Feriante is a cross-over artist in the vein of YoYo Ma or Sting. His performance program represents a bold but fluid musical fusion, featuring music from ranging from flamenco improvisation to jazz standards, and even poetry by Federico Garcia Lorca, Rumi, and Feriante himself.

Icicle Arts presents Seattle-based Sonia Dawkins / Prism Dance Theatre at the Performing Arts Center of Wenatchee on October 2 at 7:00 p.m. Described as having "elasticity and surging strength... fascinating to watch" (The Seattle Times), the company melds modernism with multiculturalism, and skill with spontaneity. A company of multi-ethnic dancers trained in classical ballet as well as movement techniques established by some of the masters of modern dance - Martha Graham, Lester Horton, and José Limon, their dances are a fusion technicality, texture, and expressiveness. The visually-moving, emotionally-compelling, and wide-ranging choreography of Sonia Dawkins astonishes audiences with its freshness, power, and depth. $12/advance, $15 at the door. Don't miss this stunning, dynamic performance!
